Bush block buyers will love this 22 acre private property in the hills of Pelverata. With sealed road right to property and power along the boundary this could be the place to build your getaway stca. There is a rough access track to a large cleared area in the middle of the block and another internal track leading right up to almost the top of the hill. Towering timbers and native bushland with a sunny aspect and great views. For more detailed information or a map please call Ian anytime at all.
