

29 Hyndes Road Port Huon TAS

A large 1011m² allotment measuring a quarter of an acre on the old scale, nestled high enough above waterfront to take in the phenomenal views of the upper stretches of the Huon River. The quiet no through bitumen road makes for easy access into the level to slightly sloping parcel of land. With the power already connected, and sewer and town water at the boundary edge there is nothing to do but bring your house plans. Nestle in with the peaceful community, stroll down to your boat on its mooring, or 2 minutes drive to the accomplished marina. All only 35 minutes to the city of Hobart. For further information, a detailed brochure, or an organised inspection time, please contact TPR for details. You will be pleasantly surprised.
