

16 Slaughterhouse Road Dover TAS

3 1

This gorgeous character 1890's home offers 3 bedrooms and sits perched atop a small hill in the middle of Dover overlooking port Esperance and the islands and beaches. With paddocks all round and a long tree lined driveway it is truly a unique position. The home has been lovingly restored and has two big living areas with wood heating plus a huge open and covered entertaining deck. There is also a double garage and large veggie patch for the keen gardener. This home is also on the market for sale, however fixed term lease options are available. Be quick for this rare gem!
