

LOT 2 Off Ayres Road Ranelagh TAS

66 glorious acres of conservation covenanted native forest in an ultra private position with established 4wd road. Towering timbers and native shrubs cover the entire property and there is a flexible building envelope around the best possible building site. The newly established 4wd track and house site have been positioned to take advantage of the sun and also to maximise the spectacular timbered valley outlook whilst giving the ultimate in forest seclusion. There is a Winter creek complete with mossy logs and manferns providing a natural haven for wildlife. Bordering the Mount Misery habitat reserve and tied in with the same conservation principals you will find it hard to locate a more private property this close to civilisation. Huonville is approximately 12 minutes away and Hobart under 40 minutes drive, giving you the convenience of a modern lifestyle whenever you need it.
