

33894/1 Judds Creek Road Judbury TAS

If a large semi private bushland setting is required then look no more, This 25 acres of natural bushland is only 15 minutes from Huonville and 45 minutes from Hobart. It has 500 metres of frontage onto Judds Creek Road, and has amazing building sites available on many of the level areas of the block. Power already connected, phone line at the boundary edge, and magical views of surrounding country and rural settings.

Some internal fencing along with a small barn exists on the property, there are several vehicular tracks developed throughout the land for internal access.

This property is certainly excellent buying in the current market. Secure yourself a great investment as well as a fantastic allotment for a new home.
