

210863/1 Hastings Bay Esplanade Hastings TAS

Just up from the shorefront is this 13.3 Acre (5.39 hectares) bushland block of native timbers and grasslands in the pristine area of Hastings Bay in Tasmania's far south. The block has multiple building sites to maximise the views of the surrounding mountains and waterways whilst maintaining the privacy and tranquillity of this level to gently sloping block. Located off the well maintained Esplanade, the track to the property is 4WD only at present but can easily be developed further. If you are looking for the self-sufficient lifestyle getaway on a large holding with plenty of sun for solar and rainfall for water, then this block fits the bill.

Located less than 10 minutes from the Southport Pub and General Store for your fuel, food and supplies, the great tourist areas of Cockle Creek and Hastings Caves and Ida Bay Railway are at your doorstep. Please contact Ian
