

700 Mountain River Road Mountain River TAS

This stunning 3.458 hectare (8.54 acre) block of land with a highly sought after riverside boundary known as Mountain River, should be inspected immediately. It is located in a quiet rural no through road enjoying all day sun, and is very peaceful. The land is fully fenced pasture divided into three paddocks including a steel stockyard. With an all year creek running through it as well as the river, water will not be an issue. The block has superb rural views that cant be built out should you wish to plan your dream home (STCA). Imagine waking to the ever changing river daily and the summer fun a family could have with your own swimming hole. There are some lovely mature trees along one edge of the property providing shelter from the wind and elements for stock. This desirable position is pure riverfront living with enviable river access. The property is just 35 minutes to the Hobart CBD. Phone Kim or Renee today to arrange an inspection, blocks like this are a rare
