3 1 2

This sweet 3 bedroom 1930 cottage has been lovingly cared for through her years and presents as a warm, inviting home, perfect for a young family or investor. Most of the original charm remains with high ceilings, spacious living areas, open fireplaces and large bay windows. A few improvements have been made throughout, including a near new bathroom, some double glazing and an original deck has become a sunroom off the master bedroom.

The living area captures the morning sun through the timber bay window and offers rural views over neighbouring farmlands. The kitchen is tastefully decorated and is sure to become the heart of this home with the dining area combined. All three of the bedrooms are extremely spacious and offer their own unique benefits the master with its sunroom or study, the second with its bay window and fireplace, the third with almost wall to wall storage and
