Nestled in its own private bushland and pastoral acreage is this quaint family home with lovely features such as timber cathedral ceilings, a spacious sunroom and enclosed entertaining area. The three bedrooms are all spacious with built in robes and the sunlight streams into the home most of the day. The high ceiling in the main living areas provides that sense of light and space, and there is access into the roof/ loft space, providing opportunity to extend up or utilise this space for additional storage. The home does require some renovation however it is a solid, warm home that you can reside in whilst you renovate.

Outside, the outbuildings are endless, including a large workshop/garage, 3 garden sheds and 2 stables. There is a large dam that irrigates and is connected to firefighting pumps and hoses for added safety and a fire break around the boundary was completed in 2006. The roof of the
